EXPERIENCE

David's career includes a multitude of exclusive, luxury projects within the residential and hospitality markets. His hospitality experience traverses all elements of new construction and renovation of hotels and resorts, spas and fitness facilities, restaurants and bars, terraces and pools, and retail outlets. In addition to hospitality experience, David has designed and completed several luxury residences across the hemisphere that have been designed with a five-star hospitality philosophy. David has an enthusiasm for design that is evident in his work. He prides himself on solid communication with the whole project team and his natural ability to develop quality relationships with the client so that their vision is always at the forefront.
